

Background and Executive Summary

Marty Sclisizzi is a former Senior Partner at Borden Ladner Gervais LLP with over 40 years' experience as a trial and appellate counsel. He brings a wealth of legal knowledge and experience in litigating a wide variety of complex and multi-party disputes including class action proceedings, banking, insolvency, fraud, employment, estate, real estate, environmental, partnership, shareholder and business disputes. He has appeared before all levels of courts in Canada, including the Supreme Court of Canada, and regulatory, administrative and arbitral tribunals. He also regularly provides strategic, legal and risk management advice to major corporations. Marty is certified by Osgoode Hall Law School and The Society of Ontario Adjudicators and Regulators in Adjudication for Administrative Agencies, Boards and Tribunals.

Marty is recognized as a leading practitioner in Canada in the areas of banking and financial institutions litigation, including retail banking disputes, lender liability, financial and payment instruments, letters of credit and civil fraud.
